

Venn Diagram

Venn diagrams are used to make comparisons. Each part of the diagram serves a purpose. Each “big” part of the circle tells the things that are different for one of the things being compared. Where the circles overlap you would indicate the things that are the same between the two things being compared.

Differences:

Similarities

Differences:

