Planning for your refund and benefits

Once you have filed your taxes, you will know if you are going to get a refund or other benefits.

If you expect money back, use these charts do some planning for your refund. Think about what goals it could help you reach.

my total refund will be:
I would like to use my refund for	Goal this will help me reach	Amount I will put towards this goal

Your Notice of Assessment will let you know the tax benefits or credits you will be receiving, and when. Use this chart to think about the timing of some of the money you will receive and how you could match it up with expenses you know you will have:

Total spending:

Benefit or credit	Time of payment	I could use this money for Example: Canada Child Benefit	Monthly	pay for my kids' recreation program
Example: GST/HST Rebate	January, April, July, October	Put towards emergency savings

o7 Preparing for tax filing

Even if you make no money, you should file a tax return each year.

You may be eligible for a refund (money back). Filing your taxes triggers access to government benefits that you can't get any other way.

Some examples of these are the Canada Child Benefit, the GST/HST credit, and the Working Income Tax Benefit. You do not have to pay taxes to get these benefits. And if you receive a refund, this can be a great chance to put money towards your goal.

Some people find the idea of filing taxes complicated and scary. Some people are comfortable filing their own taxes using software. Find out if there are any free tax clinics in your community and if you are eligible. They often run during 'tax time' – March and April. Bring all of your records with you. Expert volunteers will sort it out and help you file. If there is not an income tax clinic in your community – ask for a recommendation from someone in your family or community.

This worksheet will help you gather the information you will need at tax time.

You will need a file folder, an envelope, or a small box to put all of your paperwork in.
